Available in a wide variety of colors and styles, jeans may be purchased in the most elite boutiques, department stores, thrift shops and almost any other place where clothing is sold.

The versatile pants are so popular throughout the world that in some countries a second-hand pair costs close to $100.

Jeans are worn by everyone: farmers harvesting their crops; construction workers erecting new buildings; businessmen entertaining their friends; suburban housewives shopping for bargains; Hollywood stars attending gala happenings; President Jimmy Carter relaxing in the White House, and C.H.S. students studying, partying or merely existing.

Carthage Bulldogs, like most people, adore jeans. If they decide to wear something else, however, they still don't have to give up their beloved blue denim. The precious material is found in the form of jackets, vests, shirts, skirts, shorts, gauchos, dresses, jumpsuits, handbags, overalls and even shoes.

With such a wide selection to choose from, each student is able to express his mood through the clothes he wears.

Dogs Finish Strongly

The Bulldogs came on strong at the end of the year crushing Center and Athens. George Johns led the 'Dogs with 260 yds. rushing as the 'Dogs piled up a 42-7 victory. Johns had another big night the following Friday with 246 yds. to down Athens 33-6.

The 'Dogs finished out the year with a 4-6 record. They outscored their opponents 126 to 90. Three games were lost by the difference of extra points, and two more games by a touchdown. George Johns and Randall Cuff were named to the All-District first team. Johns rushed for over 1000 yds. in the 10 district games. Ray Stanley and Yewerist Dera-mus were also named to the second team with Neal Stallings, Alfred Brown, Roy Lee Briggs and Audrey McMillian being noted for honorable mention.

J.V. Wins District ... Again!

The 1977-78 J.V. Bulldogs got off to a slow start by losing their first three games. When they finally got their first win, they could not be stopped. When the dust finally settled at the end of the season, their record had gone to 5-4. This was good enough to win district for the second year in a row.

Bulldogs Fight Until End

The '77-78 boys basketball team had an impressive 6-4 zone record, which was good enough to capture second place in the 8-AAA east zone. Their overall season record was 14-14, but 10 of the 14 games they lost were to teams ranked in the top 10 of the East Texas poll. The dogs' leading scorer, Eric Smith, with 18 points per game, finished second in the zone in scoring.

'Dogs Have Tough Year

The Bulldogs were hot and cold this year. They finished the year with a 9-11 record.

They had a three game winning streak going three times. They finished preseason 6-4, losing two games by one run.

In Zone, they lost three close games before winning three in a row to get back in the race. After losing to Pine Tree in the second round, all play-off hopes were gone. The Dogs finished 3-7 in Zone competition.

They were led offensively by Eric Smith, Reggie Miller, Randall Cuff and Collin LaFollete. They also received strong pitching from Smith and James Cheshire.

CHS Band Awarded Sweepstakes Title

The CHS Band captured the sweepstakes title after a long year of hard work. To earn the title, a band must earn first division ratings in marching, concert and sight reading. The sweepstakes award is the highest rank a band can achieve in UIL competition.

The Band also attended two invitational contests, which were the H.E.B. Marching Contest and the Mexia Concert Contest. First divisions were made at both of these contests with the CHS band being chosen as an outstanding band at Mexia. The band also played three concerts this year, which included a spring concert, a concert for CISD schools and a concert for the State Fair in Dallas. Band members were also awarded 66 medals for their participation in Solo and Ensemble contest.

Speakers Win Awards

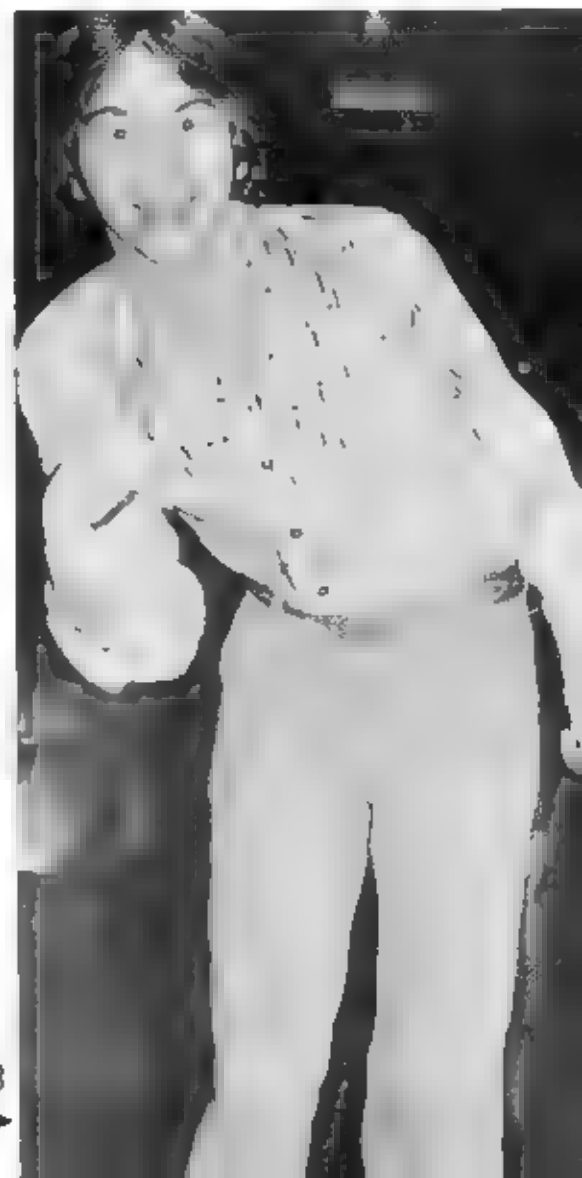

Speaking out seems to be one of the better qualities that all the Forensic club members possess. They put in many hard hours and they are put to the test every time they compete at a tournament. This year has proven to be one of the award winning ones for the members. Their diligence and creativeness has not only paid off in awards, but also in the friendship and togetherness that they experience.

Pine Burr Staff Means Work

Many students have dreams of being on the Pine Burr Staff. For fifteen students, the largest staff in some time, the wish became a reality, and the fallacy that Pine Burr is all fun and games came to a sudden halt. Under the leadership of a new sponsor, Kevin Campbell, the Pine Burr's reputation changed. The staff put much labor into two outstanding assemblies, but the number one job to each staffer was the production of a yearbook which would meet the approval of the student body.

Workshop and Photographers Benefit Staff

During August 1977, six members of the Pine Burr staff attended the SMU Workshop. It was during this week that the basics of the yearbook were planned. At the close of the workshop, the long hours of work were rewarded. The 1977-78 Pine Burr won first place for overall book plan and second place for best cover.

This year members of a photography class pulled the staff through by numerous hours spent in the darkroom. At the state ILPC in Austin, Steve Williams placed second in special effects photography.

Advisor for the Group

Running a school can be difficult and trying for those persons in authoritative positions. The lack of appreciation often shown toward them makes the job much harder. Be it band concerts, plays, football games, basketball games or other extracurricular activities, a school official is always present, sacrificing his own time with the dedication of his job. With the determination and skill that is required of them, the administrators keep C.H.S. running smoothly.

Goal: To Aid Students

The helping hands of the faculty are the aids. Making sure students always have a test, or seeing that they are enrolled and accounted for are their main jobs.

Without the guidance of the counselors, librarians and others such as secretaries and switchboard operators, the students would be hampered in their quests for help not given in the classroom.

Teachers Are People Too!

Believe it or not, teachers have the hardest job of anyone in the school. They have several jobs rolled into one. Besides teaching, most are advisors and sponsors to various clubs. They also have their families to care for and their personal lives to lead.

They see different students every year and learn new faces. Somehow, they still come up with a smile, a kind thought and a much awaited pop test.

Guidance Is the Key to Success

The teachers at CHS provide an education which will be valuable to students after high school. They teach many different courses which will prepare the students for college or for a career right after school. They spend much time helping and teaching students, hoping that their guidance will help the students achieve their goals in life.

On and on Teachers Keep on Trying

A teacher's work is never done. He must keep on drilling and pounding knowledge into the students' heads. Success is often small, but with the driving initiative of a good teacher, a student stands a better chance of being successful.

All in a Day's Work

There is more to teaching than just working in the classroom seven or eight hours a day. Aside from teaching, there is always a problem, a workshop or an after school activity they must be involved in. A teacher accepts these extra duties and responsibilities when accepting his teaching job. They are just part of a day's work.

We're the Best in All the State We're the Seniors of '78

Senior (sen' yer), adj. of or having to do with the graduating class. n. person of higher rank or longer service.

This is a dictionary definition for senior, but for many, being a senior means more than that. It means pride: pride in their school, in their fellow seniors and in themselves. It is a pride that is displayed in everything they do. And every now and then, this pride gets to be so great that it bursts out from the heart of every senior as the exhilarating ring of their senior class yell.

Today's Dreams Are Tomorrow's Realities

Most Seniors have at least a vague idea of what they want to do with their life. For years these ideas have been simple dreams. Now, as graduation approaches, these dreams come closer and closer to reality.

Juniors Take Their Chances

As the juniors begin to take on more of the responsibilities of high school, they also take greater risks. They have now learned how to just beat the tardy bells, which streets to watch out for police patrols and just how much foolishness an assistant principal will put up with.

Juniors Study Hard

With S.A.T., A.C.T. and other college entrance exams upcoming, juniors are becoming more aware of the need to make good use of the remaining days of study before these tests. After talking with parents, counselors and teachers, most have decided what they want their future to hold. Their desires are shown as each excels in their own special interest field.

New arrivals always add excitement to C.H.S. The upperclassmen never fail to attain their revenge for past years.

The freshmen, who are so relieved of finally getting out of junior high, suddenly find themselves in the center of embarrassment and confusion.

As in the past, the freshmen always keep up their good spirit for they know that their chance at revenge will come in the future.

Freshmen Suffer as Underclassmen

As though dropping from the highest to the lowest rank in school does not frustrate the freshmen enough, the upperclassmen and teachers add to their never ending list of problems. Within a few hours of arrival it is not uncommon to find freshmen climbing up flagpoles or stuck upside-down in trashcans. New places, people and subjects also add to the freshman's rather simple daily schedule.

Freshmen Are Ready for C.H.S.

The fact that C.H.S. is always ready for freshmen will survive through the years. With much satisfaction, the fact also remains that freshmen are never ready for C.H.S. This fact adds much enjoyment to the daily schedule of the upperclassmen.

Seriously, C.H.S. changes a freshman's lifestyle completely. He is now able to choose from a variety of electives, become involved in more clubs and start pursuing his career. C.H.S. transforms each freshman into a person who has to rely on his own abilities.

PANOLA JUNIOR COLLEGE

ADVANTAGES

In keeping with its purpose and philosophy Panola Junior College offers certain definite advantages as indicated below:

1. Well trained instructors whose main responsibility is teaching
2. Classes small enough to allow for personal attention where needed.
3. Individual counseling and guidance by trained personnel
4. Instructional, laboratory and library facilities equal to the best.
5. Low Cost. Tuition and fees for a normal course load for one semester will cost approximately $89. Room and board averages $445.00.
6. Opportunity for individual and personal development. Panola students are not competing with college juniors and seniors, hence they have much better opportunities to participate in student activities, to assume responsibilities and to develop their social and leadership qualities.

1978 Fades Out

Like a year, a pair of jeans fades. During the time it takes a pair of jeans to fade, they are worn through many different situations. This is much like a school year. A person must go through many experiences, many good and some bad, but never forgotten. This school year will be remembered like that favorite pair of jeans, good but gone, remembered but cherished.

1. Two CHS students leave the 1977-78 school year behind. 2. Ron Roberson and his friend say good-bye. 3. Even blue jeans are glad another year is over.

The years come and go,
but two things will always be the same . . . Bulldogs and Blue Jeans.
